AREA OF EXPERTISE

Mark Tarczynski joined Colliers in January 2011 as executive vice president based in the Downtown Los Angeles office.

He provides private capital and institutional property investors with strategic planning, repositioning, and disposition services for their commercial real estate holdings in Downtown Los Angeles.

His extensive relationships with city and state government officials, along with his collective downtown expertise, allow him to provide his clients with the most intimate and up-to-date market knowledge.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- With more than 23 years of experience and nearly 500 completed sale and lease transactions with a total consideration of more than $2 billion dollars, he has sold more high profile urban properties than any other professional in recent history.
- Elected to the first Downtown Neighborhood Council and represented the Business Interests for Downtown Los Angeles.
- CB Richard Ellis' Top 10 Los Angeles Downtown Office (2006, 2005, 2002)
- Top 50 Southern California Region (2006, 2005, 2004, 2002)
- Los Angeles Business Journal Sales Broker of the Year (2003)

BUSINESS AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Previously he was with CB Richard Ellis' Los Angeles office where he founded the Los Angeles Urban Redevelopment Group.

He earned his B.A. in Theater & Telecommunications from Indiana University.
